

As a traveler I believe the traffic and weather on XM radio will be a large help to me as I travel through the various cities. I would not know what local radio station broadcasts the traffic for each city, but with XM radio I would know. This would allow me to more safely travel through the various cities by avoiding the worst congestion.

I believe persons involved in the commercial transport business would also be well served by the continuation of this service.